On February 1, 2015 at approx. 4:45 P.M. Carver Police, Fire and EMS responded to the the area of 71 South Main Street for a reported head on Motor Vehicle Accident with entrapment. Upon arrival Officers found a 2005 Chevrolet Impala with a 21 year old pregnant female (five months), from Buzzards Bay, trapped in the drivers seat of the vehicle. The passenger, a 22 year old male from Plympton, got out on his own and was transported to Brigham and Woman's in Plymouth. Carver Fire Department used the Jaws of Life to remove the entrapped female she was then transported by ambulance to Carver Elementary School where Med Flight landed and flew her into Boston. The driver of the second vehicle, a 23 year old male from Carver, was also transported to Brigham and Womens in Plymouth. The second vehicle was a 2008 Toyota Scion with extensive front end damage. Plymouth County BCI assisted at the scene with photos. South Main Street was shut down for over one hour due to the accident. The accident is under investigation by Sgt. Orr. A Citation has been issued to the driver of the second vehicle. Carver Police request any information from witnesses at the scene to call Sgt. Orr at 508-866-2000.
